EGYPT PROTESTS TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS

WILL BE GIVEN TO ALL NATIONS IN THE LEAGUE

EGYPT IS NOT A MEMBER OF THE SAME AND PROTEST MAY BE UNHEEDED

TO BE CONSIDERED IT MUST BE BROUGHT UP BY SOME LEAGUE MEMBER

(By United Press)
Geneva, Nov. 26.—The secretariat of the League of Nations today received a protest from Egypt regarding that country's differences with England, arising out of the latter's demands following the assassination of Sir Lee Stack.

The protest will be communicated immediately to all nations which are members of the league.

The Egyptian protest was filed by Asmed Mazlou, president of the chamber of deputies, which was proposed for a month yesterday.

The league secretariat declares that owing to Egypt not being a member of the league it is impossible for that body to take up the protest unless some member officially calls it to the council's attention.

Meanwhile Asmed Mazlou is also sending protests to every league member, hopeful of finding one to bring the Anglo-Egyptian dispute before the council.

NEW PREMIER OF EGYPT IN STATEMENT

Cairo, Nov. 26.—Ziwar Pasha, new premier of Egypt, promised today to reach an agreement with England and protect foreigners.

The situation in Cairo was quiet and complete order was everywhere observed. Adjournment of the Egyptian parliament was for the purpose of giving Ziwar Pasha an opportunity to work out a program, and Lord Allenby, the British high commissioner, has indicated he is disposed to give the new premier time in which to comply with unfulfilled demands of the recent ultimatum.

"Our task is most difficult," Ziwar Pasha said, after a cabinet meeting, "but we have decided to sacrifice our tranquility in the service of our king and country."

"We hope with the help of King Fuad, who is the guardian of the constitution, to find a remedy for the situation and to save what may be saved and restore calm."

"We hope to reach an agreement with England regarding the Nile. Foreigners have nothing to fear. They will be protected. The government is resolved to maintain order. We have decided to do so, and we will do our duty."

Fireman, Off Duty, Puts Out Blaze Near Home, All by Himself

St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Gus Oberg, 974 Woodbridge street, is a fire department all by himself.

He is a member of Squad 1, Engine House 8. Yesterday afternoon while at home he heard cries for help and firemen.

He ran out to find that there was a fire in the attic of the home of his neighbor, W. A. Cummings, 985 Woodbridge street.

Grabbing a bucket he carried water to the attic, cut a hole in the roof and extinguished the blaze outside, all before the fire department arrived.

Damage to the Cummings home was about $50.

INTERNATIONAL RADIO TESTS VERY SUCCESSFUL

(By United Press)
New York, Nov. 26.—Last night was the most successful of any in the international radio tests, according to officials of Radio Broadcast, under whose auspices the tests are being held nightly. Hundreds of telegrams and telephone messages to headquarters late last night and early this morning indicated that three stations in particular, 2BD, Aberdeen, Scotland; 5NO, Newcastle, and PTT, Madrid, were heard throughout the east and middle west with great success.

14 CONVICTED BY JURY IN A MAIL FRAUD

JUDGE GEIGER, INDIANAPOLIS,
TODAY POSTPONED
SENTENCE

ATTORNEYS GIVEN TO DEC. 8 TO FILE MOTIONS FOR NEW TRIAL

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Nov. 26.—Judge Geiger in federal court today postponed sentence of 14 convicted defendants in the Hawkins mortgage company mail fraud case until December 19.

He gave the defendants' attorneys until December 8 to file motions for a new trial or other motions.

The defendants will be at liberty under the present bonds until sentence is imposed.

The date of sentence, Judge Geiger announced, may be changed at the convenience of the court and the defendants.

It is considered certain that a majority of the defendants will appeal to the United States district court of appeals in event motions for a new trial are overruled and they are sentenced to imprisonment.

The 14 were convicted by a jury last night.

WARD AGAINST BOOTLEG-
GING CHARGES

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Warrants for the arrest of J. P. Brant, federal prohibition group enforcement chief in charge of the St. Paul office, were issued today by the United States district attorney.

Brant is charged with assault and battery on the person of William J. Quinn, attorney who yesterday defended Bobbie Ward, former pugilist, against bootlegging charges. Thomas J. Newman, another attorney, filed a complaint charging Brant with assaulting and threatening his safety last week.

According to the complaint Brant struck Quinn twice yesterday after the attorney had secured dismissal of the case against Ward on a technicality. The alleged assault occurred in the court room.

Both Quinn and Newman said they might file civil action against Brant.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

WE approach that season of the year when it has been the custom of the American people to give thanks for good fortune which the bounty of Providence, through the generosity of nature, has visited upon them. It is altogether a good custom. It has the sanction of antiquity and the approbation of our religious convictions. In acknowledging the receipt of divine favor, in contemplating the blessings which have been bestowed upon us, we shall reveal the spiritual strength of the nation.

The year has been marked by a continuation of peace whereby our country has entered into a relationship of better understanding with all the other nations of the earth. Ways have been revealed to us by which we could perform very great service through giving of friendly council, through the extension of financial assistance and through the exercise of a spirit of neighborly kindness to less favored peoples. We should give thanks for the power which has been given into our keeping, with which we have been able to render these services to the rest of mankind.

At home we have continually had an improving state of the public health. The production of our industries has been large and our harvests have been bountiful. We have been remarkably free from disorder and remarkably successful in all those pursuits which flourish in a state of domestic peace. An abundance of prosperity has overspread the land. We shall do well to accept all these favors and bounties with a becoming humility and dedicate them to the service of the righteous cause of the Giver of all good and perfect gifts. The Nation has prospered, let all the people show that they are worthy to prosper, by rededicating America to the service of God and man.

Therefore, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States of America, hereby proclaim and fix Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November, as a day for national thanksgiving. I recommend that the people gather in their places of worship and at family altars and offer up their thanks for the goodness which has been shown to them in such a multitude of ways. Especially I urge them to supplicate the throne of grace that they may gather strength from their tribulations, and that they may gain humility from their victories, that they may bear without complaining the burdens that shall be placed upon them and that they may be increasingly worthy in all ways of the blessings that shall come to them.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the United States.

Done at the city of Washington, this fifth day of November, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-four and of the Independence of the United States, the One Hundred and Forty-ninth.

CALVIN COOLIDGE,

Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of State.

APPEARS ON COURT RECORDS
AS PLAIN "MR.
A."

(By United Press)
London, Nov. 26.—"The amazing thing about this affair is that 'Mr. A.' despite his high position in the world was reduced to such a state of oppression and fear that he signed in his checkbook two blank checks capable of being filled in for any amount."

Sir John Simon, counsel for the Midland Bank of London in the suit for $625,000 brought by Charles S. Robinson, bookmaker, made this statement when the case was resumed today.

Further light upon the distinguished position in world affairs held by the potentate, who was caught in a Paris hotel with Robinson's wife and paid $750,000 to avoid exposure, also was thrown by the distinguished counsel when he said:

"Mr. A. was the object of admiration and envy wherever he went, and was called 'your highness' when abroad. The identity of the rajah is being concealed for reasons of state, although everyone in London by this time is familiar with his proper name and title."

Counsel for the bank was unable to create much of a sensation by his announcement that "Mr. A." actually gave blank checks to Robinson and an alleged conspirator, for the spectators have become satiated with startling exposures during the week in which the case has been before Justice Darling.

TO GET "REAL DETECTIVE" TO SOLVE MYSTERY

BUTCHER KNIFE MURDER IN NORTHWEST ANGLE EN-
GROSSES AUTHORITIES

WITNESSES AT CORONER'S HEAR-ING MAY NOT HAVE TOLD
ALL THEY KNEW

(By United Press)
Warroad, Minn., Nov. 26.—Stumped by conflicting evidence and apparent lack of motive for the killing of the woman, county authorities decided to hire a "real detective" in an attempt to solve the butcher knife murder in the Northwest Angle.

The county attorney is convinced that witnesses at the coroner's jury hearing did not tell all they know of the death of Mrs. Dean Wheeler a week after she arrived in the big timber from Kansas. The jury brought in a verdict of accidental death but overlooked a big wound in the back of the woman's head. All the jury saw was the butcher knife sticking in her side. It had pierced her heart. The undertaker found a wound in the back of her head.

The murder, or accidental death as the jury called it, occurred November 13 in the cabin of Conrad Haugen, an old settler in the country north of Lake of the Woods. Dean Wheeler and his wife moved into the Angle to take up a claim and were stopping with Haugen until spring. Haugen and Wheeler were down at the lake getting a boat out of the ice on the afternoon of the tragedy.

While they were absent, Tony Reimer delivered mail to the cabin at 1:30 p. m. and left Mrs. Wheeler alive and happy, he said.

When Haugen and Wheeler returned to the cabin they found her dead on the cabin floor. Haugen and another man tramped 160 miles through the brush to Warroad and took the sheriff and coroner back with them.

(By United Press)
Columbus, Nov. 26.—Discrepancies in the stories of Rev. C. V. Sheatsley and his four children were to be sought by County Prosecutor John R. King today for possible clues in the Sheatsley furnace mystery.

Some time today the pastor and his children were expected to return to the fashionable parsonage in Bexley, where a week ago Monday night they found the charred remains of their wife and mother stuffed in on the burning coals of the furnace firebox. Since last Thursday they have been in Paris, O., where Mrs. Sheatsley was buried.

U. S. PROMISES TO MAKE ST. PAUL AS WARM AS MILL CITY

St. Paul, Nov. 26.—No more will St. Paul be officially known as a colder city than Minneapolis.

At least this is the promise made Mayor Nelson today by C. F. Marvin, chief of the weather bureau at Washington.

He has promised to see to it that both high and low temperatures are officially reported each day from St. Paul, or the cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis be bracketed with both high and low temperatures.

The practice has been to send out the low temperature from St. Paul and the high temperature from Minneapolis. Newspapers print the two and it appears to the reader that St. Paul is many degrees colder than Minneapolis.

"My attention was called to this matter," said the mayor, "by the publication of weather reports in a San Francisco newspaper. They always showed St. Paul about 20 degrees or so colder than Minneapolis, except of course in warm weather."

After an examination of the body a jury was empaneled from among settlers and a verdict brought in. Subsequent developments pointed to murder, and a detective will attempt to solve it.

FIRST TRIAL OF PAPER PRINTING INCOME TAX NEWS

TREK MADE OF 300 MILES OVER ROUGH ICE FIELDS AND SHORES

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Shipwrecked in the Arctic regions October 17, survivors of the ill-fated Silver Wave walked into Nome, Alaska, yesterday, according to word received here today. The trek was over 300 miles across ice fields and frozen shores.

Alfred Teisberg, St. Paul attorney, who was a passenger on the Silver Wave, wired his mother, Mrs. A. K. Teisberg, St. Paul, immediately on his arrival at Nome yesterday and the wire reached here today.

The wreck occurred off Cape Espenberg, Alaska, and the ship was a total loss. The boat left Nome Oct. 5 and after the wreck no word reached civilization from the party until about a week ago when a mate of the ship reached Nome with a dog team, telling that the party was on its long trek across the Arctic wastes to safety. The entire 300 miles was travelled on foot.

POLICEMAN IS FOUND NOT GUILTY BY JURY

PATRICK J. POWERS, MADISON,
WIS., CHARGED WITH SLAY-
ING STUDENT

LATTER, PETER POSEPENY, AT-TENDED UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

(By United Press)
Janesville, Wis., Nov. 26.—Patrick J. Powers, former Madison policeman, charged with the slaying of Peter Posepeny, former University of Wisconsin student, was found not guilty by a jury today in circuit court here.

Powers had testified his intention had been only to scare the youth whom he found on his back porch late at night and had no intention of killing him.

The jury was out only 15 minutes before it brought in a verdict exonerating Powers.

The former police officer rushed to the jury box and grasped each juror by the hand. He also thanked Circuit Court Judge Grimm.

As a result of his acquittal Powers will be reinstated on the Madison police force.

Powers was held on a manslaughter charge following the shooting on the night of May 12.

This was the second case within recent years involving the slaying of a University of Wisconsin student by a policeman.

Four years ago Officer Matt Lynaugh shot and killed Carl Jandorf, Grand Rapids, Mich., but he was acquitted by the circuit court in Jefferson, Wis.

GAIN CHURCH AND CIVILIZATION

Government Man, A. L. Mampel, at Post in "Deserted
Northland"

WRITES STATION WLW

Tells of Gratitude He Feels For Men
Who Bring Religion to "Desolate Country"

Mr. Welborne, correspondent who wrote up A. L. Mampel at Gull Lake dam station, which is located eight miles from Brainerd, on good roads within easy motoring distance of Brainerd with its 18 or more churches, slightly overdraws Mr. Mampel's present "isolation."

So rapidly has "civilization" now encroached on Mr. Mampel that a new voting precinct is only a few blocks from his modern home at the government dam. This home is of the most modern kind, valued at $10,000, with steam heat, electric light, hot and cold water, telephone, etc.

Mr. Welborne, who is undoubtedly a "re-write" man, gives Brainerd a terrible black eye when he says it has no preachers, no churches, no Sunday school, etc. There have been churches and ministers here from the time Brainerd was first founded.

(From Radio Digest of Nov. 29)
By Webb G. Welborne

Cincinnati—A. L. Mampel, on outpost duty for the United States government as dam-tender, way off the beaten paths of civilization, in the isolation of the upper pine forests of Minnesota with the members of his family, had about concluded that even God had forgotten them.

Missionaries and more missionaries were being sent by the church year after year to China, India, Africa and to other foreign lands to spread the gospel of Christianity. In all the years no religious emissary ever had been assigned to the remote little town of Brainerd.

There are no preachers in Brainerd, no churches, no Sunday-school—no facilities for devotional services. The environ benefits those uncivilized semi-savages of other countries so bounteously succored by foreign missions of the American church.

This exiled Christian family, removed from the influences of church activities and religious contact, hungering for a morsel of spiritual stimulation, had drifted into a state of despair. Then, as if a Heaven-sent rescuer, came the radio, carrying to that churchless little community in the wilderness and to the religious-starved Mampel household, a Christian message and greeting—a sermon. Harmonized with it came sacred music and devotional services, such as Brainerd never before had heard—from far off Cincinnati. Radio brought the church to the Mampels.

The Rev. Frederick S. McMillin, pastor of Walnut Hills First Presbyterian church, whose Sunday evening sermons regularly are radio-cast by WLW, was the missionary who ended the religious famine at Brainerd. Dr. McMillin is in receipt of a letter, overflowing with gratitude, from Mr. Mampel, in which he says in part:

"It has been our great pleasure to listen in on your sermons and the church choir. We have much to be thankful for out here in the isolated districts since the advent of the radio."

"For twenty years I have filled an outpost position among the tall pines and the deep snows, and during all that time I have never had the opportunity to take my family of eight children to a religious service or any kind of public entertainment."

"I often have thought that perhaps the Lord didn't know we were up here since missionaries were being sent to foreign lands, even while there was such a lack of missionary work right here in our own country. Your sermons help drive away the isolated feeling and depression about which the people of your state know little."

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Shipwrecked in the Arctic regions October 17, survivors of the ill-fated Silver Wave walked into Nome, Alaska, yesterday, according to word received here today. The trek was over 300 miles across ice fields and frozen shores.

Alfred Teisberg, St. Paul attorney, who was a passenger on the Silver Wave, wired his mother, Mrs. A. K. Teisberg, St. Paul, immediately on his arrival at Nome yesterday and the wire reached here today.

The wreck occurred off Cape Espenberg, Alaska, and the ship was a total loss. The boat left Nome Oct. 5 and after the wreck no word reached civilization from the party until about a week ago when a mate of the ship reached Nome with a dog team, telling that the party was on its long trek across the Arctic wastes to safety. The entire 300 miles was travelled on foot.

(By United Press)
Janesville, Wis., Nov. 26.—Patrick J. Powers, former Madison policeman, charged with the slaying of Peter Posepeny, former University of Wisconsin student, was found not guilty by a jury today in circuit court here.

Powers had testified his intention had been only to scare the youth whom he found on his back porch late at night and had no intention of killing him.

The jury was out only 15 minutes before it brought in a verdict exonerating Powers.

The former police officer rushed to the jury box and grasped each juror by the hand. He also thanked Circuit Court Judge Grimm.

As a result of his acquittal Powers will be reinstated on the Madison police force.

Powers was held on a manslaughter charge following the shooting on the night of May 12.

This was the second case within recent years involving the slaying of a University of Wisconsin student by a policeman.

Four years ago Officer Matt Lynaugh shot and killed Carl Jandorf, Grand Rapids, Mich., but he was acquitted by the circuit court in Jefferson, Wis.

Government Man, A. L. Mampel, at

WRITES STATION WLW

Tells of Gratitude He Feels For Men
Who Bring Religion to "Desolate Country"

Mr. Welborne, correspondent who wrote up A. L. Mampel at Gull Lake dam station, which is located eight miles from Brainerd, on good roads within easy motoring distance of Brainerd with its 18 or more churches, slightly overdraws Mr. Mampel's present "isolation."

So rapidly has "civilization" now encroached on Mr. Mampel that a new voting precinct is only a few blocks from his modern home at the government dam. This home is of the most modern kind, valued at $10,000, with steam heat, electric light, hot and cold water, telephone, etc.

Mr. Welborne, who is undoubtedly a "re-write" man, gives Brainerd a terrible black eye when he says it has no preachers, no churches, no Sunday school, etc. There have been churches and ministers here from the time Brainerd was first founded.

(From Radio Digest of Nov. 29)
By Webb G. Welborne

Cincinnati—A. L. Mampel, on outpost duty for the United States government as dam-tender, way off the beaten paths of civilization, in the isolation of the upper pine forests of Minnesota with the members of his family, had about concluded that even God had forgotten them.

Missionaries, and more missionaries were being sent by the church year after year to China, India, Africa and to other foreign lands to spread the gospel of Christianity. In all the years no religious emissary ever had been assigned to the remote little town of Brainerd.

There are no preachers in Brainerd, no churches, no Sunday-school—no facilities for devotional services. The environ benefits those uncivilized semi-savages of other countries so bounteously succored by foreign missions of the American church.

This exiled Christian family, removed from the influences of church activities and religious contact, hungering for a morsel of spiritual stimulant, had drifted into a state of despair. Then, as if a Heaven-sent rescuer, came the radio, carrying to that churchless little community in the wilderness and to the religious-starved Mampel household, a Christian message and greeting—a sermon. Harmonized with it came sacred music and devotional services, such as Brainerd never before had heard—from far off Cincinnati. Radio brought the church to the Mampels.

The Rev. Frederick S. McMillin, pastor of Walnut Hills First Presbyterian church, whose Sunday evening sermons regularly are radio-cast by WLM, was the missionary who ended the religious famine at Brainerd. Dr. McMillin is in receipt of a letter, overflowing with gratitude, from Mr. Mampel, in which he says in part:

"It has been our great pleasure to listen in on your sermons and the church choir. We have much to be thankful for out here in the isolated districts since the advent of the radio."

"For twenty years I have filled an outpost position among the tall pines and the deep snows, and during all that time I have never had the opportunity to take my family of eight children to a religious service or any kind of public entertainment."

"I often have thought that perhaps the Lord didn't know we were up here since missionaries were being sent to foreign lands, even while there was such a lack of missionary work right here in our own country. Your sermons help drive away the isolated feeling and depression about which the people of your state know little."

The Early Puritans

established Thanksgiving as a day of gratitude for life, liberty, and a harvest worth perhaps a few hundred dollars. This year we have an easier life, the same liberty and a crop that will probably exceed twelve billion dollars. Let us offer thanks for the manifold blessings that are ours in present day America.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES IN THE CITY

Union Services at 10:30 Thursday Morning at the Swedish Baptist Church

SERMON BY REV. E. A. COOKE

Other Churches Announce Special Exercises in Commemoration of Thanksgiving

Brairnerd citizens will be given an opportunity to express their gratitude for blessings of the past year in appropriate services to be held by various denominations in the city on Thanksgiving day.

The union Thanksgiving service will be held at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning at the Swedish Baptist church, corner of Oak and South Tenth streets. A number of the denominations are joining in this service in which several local pastors will assist and Rev. E. A. Cooke of the Methodist church will deliver the sermon.

Rev. F. C. Rathert of the Zion Lutheran church, corner of Main and Broadway, announces a special Thanksgiving service in the English language at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning.

There will be a celebration of Holy Communion at 9:30 o'clock on Thanksgiving morning at St. Paul's Episcopal church. All communicants are urged to be present at this service of Thanksgiving to Almighty God for his blessings of the past year.

The Clara Lutheran church, corner Norwood and South Broadway, will observe the Thanksgiving season with a special service on Thursday evening at 7:45 o'clock to which all are invited.

Appropriate services will be held at the Swedish Baptist church at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening for which a Thanksgiving program has been arranged and to which the public is invited.

The Salvation Army in its regular Thursday evening meeting, will give special attention to the Thanksgiving season.

Local citizens are urged to bear these various services in mind and to attend one or more of them on Thanksgiving day.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church

The Right Rev. G. G. Bennett, D.D., bishop of Duluth, will visit St. Paul's parish on Saturday and Sunday next. He will hold a meeting with the parish guilds on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and with the vestry and members of the men's club on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. All men interested in the welfare of the parish are cordially invited to this meeting. Refreshments will be served.

Bishop Bennett will preach at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

There will be celebration of the Holy Communion on Thanksgiving morning at 9:30 o'clock. All communicants are urged to be present at this service of Thanksgiving to Almighty God.

Expressions From Local People Mayor Con O'Brien feels that the city of Brairnerd has a great deal for which to be thankful at this season. Business conditions are improving, there is very little non-employment, and citizens generally feel very optimistic for the coming season, said the mayor.

Dr. R. A. Beise, head of the county health organization, and Dr. Joseph Nicholson, city health officer, feel that Brairnerd and Crow Wing county should be very thankful because of the fact that there are no serious epidemics prevalent here. Smallpox, proving such a plague in many other localities in the state, has not fastened its grip on Brairnerd or this county, and with the support of individuals, the officers hope that there will be no epidemic of this disease.

Business men generally in the city feel grateful for the revival of trade during the past season, and look forward to one of the best holiday seasons the city has known in years.

The John M. Bye Clothing Company expresses a very fine sentiment in its advertisement in today's Dispatch, in which the store is thankful for the opportunity of assisting in making this city a better place in which to live, and a better trading center.

Lively's stock of Ford parts is complete in every detail. Open day and night.

ENCAMPMENT TO CONFER DEGREES

Rushworth Encampment of Odd Fellows to Entertain Minneapolis Degree Team

G. S. W. LUNDEEN COMING

Encampment Members Are Expected From Motley, Pine River, Iron-ton, Staples, Etc.

On Saturday evening, November 29th, Rushworth Encampment will hold a special session for the purpose of conferring of degrees. A full team from Minneapolis, headed by Grand Senior Warden Lundeen, will be present. A bug has been chartered to bring the Minneapolis delegation, their famous quartette and glee club. Encampment members from Motley, Pine River, Staples, Iron-ton, Crosby, Deerwood, Backus and other towns in this district are expected to attend this meeting. The local camp has made complete arrangements to entertain a large crowd. A class of fifteen candidates is already enrolled and more are expected as soon as word can be received from the surrounding lodges.

A TEST OF YEARS

Is the Experience of This Brairnerd Resident

Are you miserable with an aching back? Feel tired, nervous and run down? Do you have daily headaches, dizzy spells and annoying urinary disorders? Then why not take the advice of a Brairnerd resident who suffered as you do and found lasting relief by using Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys? Here is a Brairnerd case that the years haven't changed. Why not profit by it?

Mrs. R. Noakes, 311 9th St., S., says: "My kidneys were disordered. My feet swelled so I couldn't wear my shoes. I also had a tired, depressed feeling but nothing I did helped me until I used Doan's Pills. Four boxes of Doan's cured me."

SEVERAL YEARS LATER Mrs. Noakes said: "The cure I received from using Doan's Pills has been permanent."

STANDING COMMITTEES REPORT

A Short Program Enjoyed Before the Business Session Last Night

The attendance at the meeting of the Northeast Brairnerd Improvement League Tuesday evening was not as large as was hoped for, but what was lacking in numbers was made up for in enthusiasm.

The meeting was opened by the singing of "America," after which Richard Isle favored the audience with a solo. Mrs. Purdy gave an enjoyable reading entitled "Seeing Things at Night." "Rosella Buying a Pair of Shoes," a reading by Mrs. J. H. Herbert, was also very enjoyable.

Mrs. Herbert mentioned the good work done by the Parent-Teachers, who had sent a heavily loaded truck or supplies as the Third ward's share in the Thanksgiving dinners.

Standing committees made reports which showed the league was going ahead with the work at hand. It was urged that all work for larger attendance at meetings.

The officers elected for the ensuing year were:

President—Mrs. J. H. Herbert.
Vice President—Elmer L. Dahl.
Secretary—Hugo A. Kaatz.

254 Thanksgiving Days Until We Had Telephones

A struggling little group of Pilgrim colonists at Plymouth, Massachusetts, founded Thanksgiving Day in 1621. It was 254 years later, in 1875, that the telephone was born.

The Pilgrims led a rigorous life beset with dangers and hardships. Their only means of communication called for tedious journeys on foot over unbeaten trails or along the treacherous waters of an uncharted coast.

Today, we commemorate Thanksgiving with all the conveniences of modern civilization, and the celebration is a much more joyous occasion because of them.

We are now a nation of 110 million people, spread over a land 3,000 miles from coast to coast. But we are all linked together by 36 million miles of wire of the Bell System and connecting companies, so that everyone may talk to anyone, anywhere.

MISGUIDED PUBLICITY

BRAINERD has received a lot of misguided publicity because a "re-write" man in Cincinnati dilated on a letter of a Brainerd man, and in the Radio Digest, published in Chicago as of November 29, made the assertion that Brainerd was without churches, without Sunday schools, that it had no facilities for devotional services, that in all these years "no religious emissary ever had been assigned to the remote little town of Brainerd."

The article itself, reproduced from the Radio Digest, is published in the Dispatch of today.

Here is the comment accorded the story by the Little Falls Daily Transcript:

The hundreds of eastern tourists who visit Minnesota each year and enjoy themselves in the biggest playgrounds of the United States must think the author of the article written for the Radio Digest is either a fool or was never farther west than New York. Read what the writer has to say of the most civilized state in the Union. We wonder if the Radio Digest knows that the Civil war is over.

The editorial in the Transcript is headed "In the Northern Wilderness of Brainerd."

The Bemidji Daily Pioneer carries an editorial headed "Brainerd The Benighted," and this argument:

The outposts of civilization will have to be brought south several hundred miles; the memories of the visits of Sousa's famous band, the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, the Chautauqua and Lyceum entertainers forgotten; Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the explorer, must be pictured as loading supplies for several weeks on his dog sleds in order to keep his lecture engagement in Bemidji this evening and foreign missionary societies had better spend their money at home, if a story appearing in the current issue of the Radio Digest is to be taken literally.

According to the story, a resident of Brainerd, Minnesota, "way off the beaten paths of civilization, in the isolation of the upper forests of Minnesota," blesses the radio as the only means of bringing religion to his little family for "in all the years no religious emissary ever has been assigned to the remote little town of Brainerd."

We have no doubt but that the radio is in general use in Brainerd just as it is in the majority of progressive communities but we doubt if its outstanding value is in bringing the people of Brainerd religious messages. It is easy for us to picture the radio as a means of presenting the seductive strains of the world's best orchestras to the bejeweled guests at Breezy Point, the state's de luxe summer resort; carrying the stirring strains of martial music to large throngs at Lum park, Brainerd's popular public playground where the Pierce Arrows and Packards of tourists mingle with the moderately priced cars of the employees of one of the world's most modern paper mills; furnishing dance music for a street carnival held on any one of Brainerd's many paved avenues under the glare of a brilliant White Way or giving, through the enterprise of Brainerd's live daily newspaper, the latest returns of election and sports.

But read for yourself the pathetic picture as painted in the Radio Digest by Webb G. Wellborne, an effete Easterner who has probably never been any further west than Schenectady, let's make it Buffalo.

How Brainerd viewed the situation:

As Brainerd read the Radio Digest comment on the dam tender, A. L. Mampel, stationed at Gull lake dam, to whom radio meant a wave of religion unbundled in the ether for himself and family, denied such privileges hitherto because of his being on "outpost duty" for the United States, the whole town marveled.

Mampel is stationed exactly eight miles from Brainerd, a town of ten thousand population. He lives in a home built by the government, of beautiful design, supplied with furnace heat, hot and cold water, electric light, telephone and the inevitable radio. The house is valued at $10,000.

Three blocks from the home is a little white school house, standing there twenty years. H. F. Michael, president of the Brainerd city council and superintendent of the largest Sunday school in Brainerd, said Mrs. Henry White had taught Sunday school there for years before the radio was perfected.

Close to the Mampel home is the Gull Lake hotel, summer resort accommodating many tourists. Flanking the shores of Gull lake are summer homes of all kinds. A mile and a half from Mampel's one drives on to the Gull lake highway on which thunder past 2,000 automobiles daily in the busy tourist season.

Fred H. Gruenhagen, president of the Chamber of Commerce, objected to the bunk turned out by one Webb G. Wellborne, who introduced the Mampel letter. The assertion that "there are no preachers in Brainerd, no churches, no Sunday school—no facilities for devotional services," especially provoked Mr. Gruenhagen. He is a prominent member of the Lutheran church.

T. H. Schaefer, member of the Park Board and owner of a meat market, said he had lived in Brainerd 35 years and there were never less than 20 or more than 40 ministers in Brainerd.

Rev. W. M. Walton, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, said radio-religion with no obligations except to "tune in" to the sermon, never carried the message nor that whole-hearted cooperation in the performance of Christian duties as did real church attendance.

D. D. Schrader, member of the state central Republican committee attends the Methodist church and had Larry Ho address the Sunday school there last year. He marveled at the pathetic picture painted by the Radio Digest man when he viewed the alleged lack of religion in Brainerd.

Miss Mary Tornstrom, principal of the high school of 500 students, said she was assured that every one of this school army attended some church or Sunday school and that every year, for the past 40 years, the graduating class has listened to a baccalaureate sermon by some Brainerd minister.

The Brainerd Ministerial Association meets Monday and will no doubt take up the Radio Digest assertion that "radio came as a Heaven-sent rescuer carrying to the churchless little community of Brainerd in the wilderness a Christian message." Ten or more churches hold membership in the ministerial association.

With a Presbyterian church established for years in Brainerd, one would think that Rev. Frederick N. McMillin would be aware of the churches in Brainerd.

Captain William H. Fawcett of Breezy Point Lodge, who saw three Philippine campaigns and fought the Moros and has seen quite a few outposts in his time, hardly regarded a Gull lake dam station eight miles from Brainerd as being an outpost of civilization.

Brainerd's radio colony numbers 200 or more with sets ranging from $35 to $500 in value. Some have made records in receiving. They resent the allusions made in the Radio Digest as to the utter lack of religion in Brainerd until the radio supplied it.

Mayor Con O'Brien, who yesterday celebrated his seventieth birthday and felt as chipper as a colt in a new pasture, has attended the same Catholic church in Brainerd half a century and resented the imputation cast by the Radio Digest that "in all the years no religious emissary ever had been assigned to the town of Brainerd."

The editor of the Bemidji Daily Pioneer didn't like shifting the outpost of civilization down to eight miles from Brainerd. He said further that the Webb G. Wellborne personage who spouted the stuff in the Radio Digest must be an effete Easterner who probably never got any further west than Schenectady or Buffalo.

L. C. Strout, secretary of the Lions club, let out a roar and said the Radio Digest cut off Brainerd from all churches and it didn't even give us credit for a Salvation Army, Lion or Rotary club.

A straw vote taken in town is to the effect that the Radio Digest must retract its slurs on Brainerd's lack of religion in public print and by radio.

The St. Paul Dispatch carried this story from Duluth:

"Godless, forgotten, isolated from all civilization, with no preachers, no churches, no Sunday schools—no facilities for devotional services," that is the "remote little town of Brainerd, Minn.," according to Webb G. Wellborne, Cincinnati, whose article on benefits of religious services by radio is printed in this week's issue of a radio publication.

"WHY I TRADE IN BRAINERD" ESSAY
CONTEST DEC. 5

To Editor Dispatch Essay Contest:
Why I trade in Brainerd?
First, because it's my home and I wish to see it prosper.

Second, because I see what I buy and know I am not cheated.

Last, but not least, the merchants of Brainerd buy to sell as cheap as mail order houses. Some are really more reasonable than when you order out of town. You never are sure of being pleased outside, whereas if you trade with home folks, they are going to please you or no sale. That's why I buy of Brainerd merchants.

MRS. FRANK WICKHAM,

Editor Brainerd Essay Contest:
I trade in Brainerd because the business folks have always given me a square deal.

Distance lends enchantment to the view. As an old farmer once said, "I don't like to buy a pig in the poke." I own my property here and I often have to ask for credit and it is always granted to me.

Are we not conscious of the fact that the best we have ever done or ever have been is because some one believed in us. What we need is confidence in one another.

Don't be a kicker. Boost your town by buying here.

MANUFACTURER PARTIAL TO LINE WHEN HE BUILT NEW FORD PLANT IN ST. PAUL

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Rumors that Henry Ford has become financially interested in the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road were current in railroad circles here today. Ford, the report had it, will be active in the paying off of $40,000,000 bonded indebtedness of the railroad which comes due in 1925.

When the new Ford plant was started here the manufacturer was partial to the St. Paul road and gave other northwest roads to understand that the branch to the Ford plant would be from the St. Paul road and no other. Since then the line has laid plans for a northwest cutoff bridge over the Mississippi at the Ford plant to route its transcontinental trains. The line also took advantage of an option with the Northern Pacific of running its local trains to Duluth via the Twin Cities, and this was taken as a further indication that the St. Paul road will get most of the Ford plant business.

Brainerd, the county seat of Crow Wing county, boasting a population of nearly 12,000, thriving railroad junction, with many churches, parochial and public schools, all modern, is huddling away in "the isolation of the upper pine forest of Minnesota" and never heard "sacred music and devotional services before," until they were broadcast from far off Cincinnati, the article says.

Wellborne's article is based on a letter which he says was received by Rev. Frederick N. McMillan, Cincinnati, from A. L. Mampel, Gull lake dam tender, an "outpost of the beaten path of civilization." Rev. Mr. McMillan is credited with "ending the religious famine at Brainerd."

St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Two more pledges were added today to the 53 Rep. John A. Johnson has for the speakership of the house in the coming legislature.

This brings his total to 55, or 11 short of the number needed for election.

At the same time two more speakership candidates appeared at legislative headquarters at the St. Francis hotel—Reps. F. A. Green, Marshall county, a candidate two years ago, and Nels T. Moen, Otter Tail county.

Two contests for seats in the house also were filed in Hennepin county, which probably will get onto the floor. One is Miss Myrtle Cain against Rep. John F. Bowers. They were both members of the last house. The canvassing board's report showed that Miss Cain was defeated by nine votes. She received 3,520 votes as against Mr. Bower's 3,529. Joseph Koslak, the other candidate for the house in this district and a former member, received 3,617 votes.

Miss Cain has contested the election of Rep. Bowers.

Another contest also has been filed in Hennepin county by Emil S. Youngdahl against Harry A. Montgomery and Rep. Erling S. Swenson, a member of the house the last two sessions and the Nonpartisan league candidate for speaker in the 1921 session. Mr. Montgomery was declared elected with 8,758 votes. Rep. Swenson got 7,077 votes.

Contestants contend in each action that illegal votes were counted for their opponents. The hearings on the contests will be held today in Hennepin county district court.—St. Paul Daily News.

MISGUIDED PUBLICITY

BRAINERD has received a lot of misguided publicity because a "re-write" man in Cincinnati dilated on a letter of a Brainerd man, and in the Radio Digest, published in Chicago as of November 29, made the assertion that Brainerd was without churches, without Sunday schools, that it had no facilities for devotional services, that in all these years "no religious emissary ever had been assigned to the remote little town of Brainerd."

The article itself, reproduced from the Radio Digest, is published in the Dispatch of today.

Here is the comment accorded the story by the Little Falls Daily Transcript:

The hundreds of eastern tourists who visit Minnesota each year and enjoy themselves in the biggest playgrounds of the United States must think the author of the article written for the Radio Digest is either a fool or was never farther west than New York. Read what the writer has to say of the most civilized state in the Union. We wonder if the Radio Digest knows that the Civil war is over.

The editorial in the Transcript is headed "In the Northern Wilderness of Brainerd."

The Bemidji Daily Pioneer carries an editorial headed "Brainerd The Benighted," and this argument:

The outposts of civilization will have to be brought south several hundred miles; the memories of the visits of Sousa's famous band, the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, the Chautauqua and Lyceum entertainers forgotten; Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the explorer, must be pictured as loading supplies for several weeks on his dog sleds in order to keep his lecture engagement in Bemidji this evening and foreign missionary societies had better spend their money at home, if a story appearing in the current issue of the Radio Digest is to be taken literally.

According to the story, a resident of Brainerd, Minnesota, "way off the beaten paths of civilization, in the isolation of the upper forests of Minnesota," blesses the radio as the only means of bringing religion to his little family for "in all the years no religious emissary ever has been assigned to the remote little town of Brainerd."

We have no doubt but that the radio is in general use in Brainerd just as it is in the majority of progressive communities but we doubt if its outstanding value is in bringing the people of Brainerd religious messages. It is easy for us to picture the radio as a means of presenting the seductive strains of the world's best orchestras to the bejeweled guests at Breezy Point, the state's de luxe summer resort; carrying the stirring strains of martial music to large throngs at Lum park, Brainerd's popular public playground where the Pierce Arrows and Packards of tourists mingle with the moderately priced cars of the employees of one of the world's most modern paper mills; furnishing dance music for a street carnival held on any one of Brainerd's many paved avenues under the glare of a brilliant White Way or giving, through the enterprise of Brainerd's live daily newspaper, the latest returns of election and sports.

But read for yourself the pathetic picture as painted in the Radio Digest by Webb G. Wellborne, an effete Easterner who has probably never been any further west than Schenectady or Buffalo.

How Brainerd viewed the situation:

As Brainerd read the Radio Digest comment on the dam tender, A. L. Mampel, stationed at Gull lake dam, to whom radio meant a wave of religion unburdened in the ether for himself and family, denied such privileges hitherto because of his being on "outpost duty" for the United States, the whole town marveled.

Mampel is stationed exactly eight miles from Brainerd, a town of ten thousand population. He lives in a home built by the government, of beautiful design, supplied with furnace heat, hot and cold water, electric light, telephone and the inevitable radio. The house is valued at $10,000.

Three blocks from the home is a little white school house, standing there twenty years. H. F. Michael, president of the Brainerd city council and superintendent of the largest Sunday school in Brainerd, said Mrs. Henry White had taught Sunday school there for years before the radio was perfected.

Close to the Mampel home is the Gull Lake hotel, summer resort accommodating many tourists. Flanking the shores of Gull lake are summer homes of all kinds. A mile and a half from Mampel's one drives on to the Gull lake highway on which thunder past 2,000 automobiles daily in the busy tourist season.

Fred H. Gruenhagen, president of the Chamber of Commerce, objected to the bunk turned out by one Webb G. Wellborne, who introduced the Mampel letter. The assertion that "there are no preachers in Brainerd, no churches, no Sunday school—no facilities for devotional services," especially provoked Mr. Gruenhagen. He is a prominent member of the Lutheran church.

T. H. Schaefer, member of the Park Board and owner of a meat market, said he had lived in Brainerd 35 years and there were never less than 20 or more than 40 ministers in Brainerd.

Rev. W. M. Walton, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, said radio-religion with no obligations except to "tune in" to the sermon, never carried the message nor that whole-hearted cooperation in the performance of Christian duties as did real church attendance.

D. D. Schrader, member of the state central Republican committee attends the Methodist church and had Larry Ho address the Sunday school there last year. He marveled at the pathetic picture painted by the Radio Digest man when he viewed the alleged lack of religion in Brainerd.

Miss Mary Tornstrom, principal of the high school of 500 students, said she was assured that every one of this school army attended some church or Sunday school and that every year, for the past 40 years, the graduating class has listened to a baccalaureate sermon by some Brainerd minister.

The Brainerd Ministerial Association meets Monday and will no doubt take up the Radio Digest assertion that "radio came as a Heaven-sent rescuer carrying to the churchless little community of Brainerd in the wilderness a Christian message." Ten or more churches hold membership in the ministerial association.

With a Presbyterian church established for years in Brainerd, one would think that Rev. Frederick N. McMillan would be aware of the churches in Brainerd.

Captain William H. Fawcett of Breezy Point Lodge, who saw three Philippine campaigns and fought the Moros and has seen quite a few outposts in his time, hardly regarded a Gull lake dam station eight miles from Brainerd as being an outpost of civilization.

Brainerd's radio colony numbers 200 or more with sets ranging from $35 to $500 in value. Some have made records in receiving. They resent the allusions made in the Radio Digest as to the utter lack of religion in Brainerd until the radio supplied it.

Mayor Con O'Brien, who yesterday celebrated his seventieth birthday and felt as chipper as a colt in a new pasture, has attended the same Catholic church in Brainerd half a century and resented the imputation cast by the Radio Digest that "in all the years no religious emissary ever had been assigned to the town of Brainerd."

The editor of the Bemidji Daily Pioneer didn't like shifting the outpost of civilization down to eight miles from Brainerd. He said further that the Webb G. Wellborne personage who spouted the stuff in the Radio Digest must be an effete Easterner who probably never got any further west than Schenectady or Buffalo.

I. C. Strout, secretary of the Lions club, let out a roar and said the Radio Digest cut off Brainerd from all churches and it didn't even give us credit for a Salvation Army, Lion or Rotary club.

A straw vote taken in town is to the effect that the Radio Digest must retract its slurs on Brainerd's lack of religion in public print and by radio.

The St. Paul Dispatch carried this story from Duluth:

"Godless, forgotten, isolated from all civilization, with no preachers, no churches, no Sunday schools—no facilities for devotional services," that is the "remote little town of Brainerd, Minn.," according to Webb G. Wellborne, Cincinnati, whose article on benefits of religious services by radio is printed in this week's issue of a radio publication.

M. E. PARSONAGE HAS BEEN SOLD

Old Building Now Being Wrecked is
One of City's Landmarks

ROMANCE ATTACHES TO SAME

More Marriages Performed Here Than in Any Other Residence of the City

The Methodist parsonage at 317 North Sixth street, has been sold and is being wrecked for the lumber that it contains. Rev. E. A. Cooke has moved into the newly acquired property at the corner of North Seventh street and Bluff avenue, which the church recently purchased.

The old parsonage just south of the church is one of Brainerd's landmarks and a certain amount of romance is attached to it for many local citizens as well as many who have lived in the city during the past and have moved away. Probably more marriage ceremonies have been performed in this parsonage than in any other residence in the city. Births, marriages and deaths have occurred within its walls.

According to available history concerning the house, the first part of it, which in recent years was used as the dining room, was the original parsonage, built in 1872 as a part of the first Methodist edifice. It was separated from the church building in 1883, moved to its present location and the balance of the house erected at a cost of $716.82 the record shows. It is thought that this amount does not include the porch which was added at a later date.

The first church building was moved to the lots just west of the present church site and remodeled into a home now occupied by Mrs. Leona B. Treglawny, 514 Juniper street, and a new church was erected in 1886, which served the congregation until 1916 when it was remodeled and enlarged to its present size.

While accurate figures are not available, as near as can be estimated, thirty Methodist pastors have lived in the old parsonage during the fifty years of its existence. Of this number only one death is recorded, that of Rev. R. Fuller, which occurred just previous to Rev. Treglawny's pastorate.

So far as is known, but one birth took place in the parsonage, at least in the families of the ministers. This was Miss Hazel Treglawny, daughter of Rev. Treglawny. She is now Mrs. H. C. Kylio, living at Stevens Point, Wis.

Two daughters of Methodist pastors have been married in the parsonage according to the records. These were the Misses Finis and Nellie Loomis, daughters of Rev. Loomis.

The number of marriages performed in the parsonage by the resident ministers cannot even be estimated. Rev. Cooke in the six years that he has lived in the building, has married 104 couples there. The mother of the bride in one of these weddings stated to Rev. Cooke that she was married in the parsonage nearly thirty years ago.

A man prominent in the Methodist church stated that the first time he ever saw the young lady who was destined to be his wife was at a social function at the parsonage. In showing his little son where his mother was sitting on that evening, remarked that he was introduced to the lady, started to talk to her, and had been talking to her ever since.

The parsonage contained eight rooms and a bath, five rooms downstairs and three on the second floor. The lumber used in the construction of the house was of the very best and is still in as good condition as it was when put into the building.

With the passing of this parsonage, Brainerd is losing one of its old landmarks, but the many memories associated with this building will live in the minds of those concerned for many years to come.

'MA' FERGUSON SENDS EAST FOR TWO GOWNS FOR INAUGURATION

Temple, Tex., Nov. 26.—Somewhere along the "sidewalks of New York" today nimble fingered modistes were stitching away upon two gowns to be worn by "her excellency, the governor of Texas," when "Ma" Ferguson takes over the helm of state from Gov. Pat Neff at Austin Jan. 20.

Why two? Well, one is to be worn at the inaugural ceremonies at "high noon" and the other at the reception that night, "ma" explained.

Orders for the gowns were sent in shortly after the general election showed the woman candidate won. But, you have "ma's" word for it, you'll have to be at the ceremonies or wait until afterward to know the gubernatorial designs. Furthermore, she refused to reveal the name of the designers.

"What style are they? Listen, Mr. Man, do you think I am going to miss getting a kick out of these gowns by telling you about them now? That is something the male population has never been able to clearly understand and probably never will—but a woman wants to show her clothes first," so spoke her excellency.

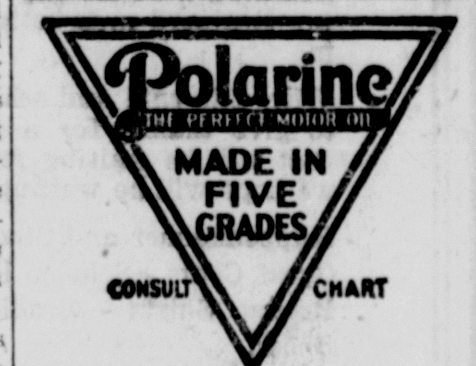

The wording "her excellency" appears upon invitations ready to be sent out in connection with the inaugural ceremonies two months away.

Avon River of Death

The Avon river, made famous by Shakespeare, has been called the "river of death," because of the great amount of sewage from the town of Coventry. Plant life has ceased to grow in it, fish have died and all vegetation along the bank is disappearing.

FARM BLOC LEADER CAPPER URGES REFORMS

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 26.—A three-fold program of agricultural legislation for the present Congress was proposed by Senator Capper, farm bloc leader from Kansas.

With circumstances conspiring against any action whatever on farm relief before March, the bloc has decided nevertheless to press actively for three distinct projects, as follows:

1. A relief measure for livestock and cattlemen who have failed to realize the success of grain farmers through increased prices and are still reported in financial distress.
2. Adoption of a new plan encouraging co-operative marketing of all agricultural products.
3. Congressional sanction of a movement to readjust freight rates on all commodities so that agricultural products may be benefited.

Capper is not at all pessimistic about the outcome of the program. He believes that all three of the projects may pass and he is certain that the movement to lower freight rates will be accepted.

The guests'll all be hungry.
An' the children, starved about
With that gnawing o' the stomach—
Why, their eyes'll pop right out.
Your dinner will be lovely.
With its puddin' and the plum
But top it off with color of
A huge chrysanthemum.

When everything is ready,
With the turkey on the tray,
An' everybody's thankful
For His blessings, an' the day,
Make things the happier,
An' guests so glad they've come,

M. E. PARSONAGE HAS BEEN SOLD

Old Building Now Being Wrecked is
One of City's Land-
marks

ROMANCE ATTACHES TO SAME

More Marriages Performed Here Than in Any Other Residence of
the City

The Methodist parsonage at 317 North Sixth street, has been sold and is being wrecked for the lumber that it contains. Rev. E. A. Cooke has moved into the newly acquired property at the corner of North Seventh street and Bluff avenue, which the church recently purchased.

The old parsonage just south of the church is one of Brainerd's landmarks and a certain amount of romance is attached to it for many local citizens as well as many who have lived in the city during the past and have moved away. Probably more marriage ceremonies have been performed in this parsonage than in any other residence in the city. Births, marriages and deaths have occurred within its walls.

According to available history concerning the house, the first part of it, which in recent years was used as the dining room, was the original parsonage, built in 1872 as a part of the first Methodist edifice. It was separated from the church building in 1883, moved to its present location and the balance of the house erected at a cost of $716.82 the record shows. It is thought that this amount does not include the porch which was added at a later date.

The first church building was moved to the lots just west of the present church site and remodeled into a home now occupied by Mrs. Leona B. Treglawny, 514 Juniper street, and a new church was erected in 1886, which served the congregation until 1916 when it was remodeled and enlarged to its present size. While accurate figures are not available, as near as can be estimated, thirty Methodist pastors have lived in the old parsonage during the fifty years of its existence. Of this number only one death is recorded, that of Rev. R. Fuller, which occurred just previous to Rev. Treglawny's pastorate.

CON O'BRIEN, 70 YEARS YOUNG

Birthday Party Celebrates Happy Event in Life of Popular Mayor of the City

SPLENDID DINNER SERVED

Two Tables of Cards Then Played and Some Remarkable Scores Were Turned In

Monday evening Con O'Brien, 70 years young, had a birthday party which was thoroughly enjoyed by all honored in being privileged to attend. The visitors, numbering 25, were greeted by the host and shortly after, dinner was served in two rooms of his spacious home.

And the menu was one in which home cooking vied, and included tender turkey you could cut with your fork, mashed potatoes, peas, sweet potatoes, cranberry sherbert, lettuce and asparagus, pumpkin pie a la mode, coffee and cream, etc. Daughters of Mr. O'Brien served the dinner.

Several of the guests were known to be on diet for reduction of waist lines or blood pressure, but when that tempting dinner was displayed in a rare setting of cut glass, silver, gleaming white napery, china, cut flowers, etc., all doctors' regulations were cast to the wind and everybody ate freely without mental reservation or other restrictions.

Three times did Col. C. D. Johnson halt the circuit of the turkey plate, equalling Andy Gieriet's record. Barely was one course served, when it fell before the combined attack of the diners. "Come on with your next course," said Con to his daughters. The appetites displayed gave ample evidence that the home cooking of Con O'Brien's household is something of rare merit and many a word of praise and commendation was heard.

After dinner the company played two tables of cards. Head prizes were won by C. D. Johnson and F. A. Farrar on the first table, and by B. C. McNamara and Giles O'Brien on the second table. Booby prizes were awarded John Holvick and Captain William H. Fawcett. The host of the evening fared just a little better than the consolation prize winners. Between hands cider and apples were served.

The guests present were R. J. Hartley, A. G. Trommald, John Holvick, F. A. Farrar, H. L. Jones, James Murphy, Captain Wm. H. Fawcett, E. R. Smith, A. A. Gieriet, Art Koop, Ernest Butler, B. C. McNamara, Bert Parker, Geo. Warner, John A. Hoffbauer, C. D. Johnson, Max Markowitz, George Trent, Jr., and the five sons of Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, being Jay, Bert, Giles, Neil and Earl.

FORBES CASE

OPENS, BRIBERY CHARGES MADE

GOVERNMENT OPENS WITH ATTORNEY GENERAL CRIM'S STATEMENT

SAYS FORBES AND ACCOMPLICE HOPED TO DIVERT MILLION TO THEMSELVES

Chicago, Nov. 26.—The contracting firm of Thompson & Black "bought and paid for its government contracts" for erection of veterans hospitals, Assistant Attorney General John W. H. Crim charged today in his opening statement to the federal jury trying Col. Charles R. Forbes, former Veterans Bureau director, and John W. Thompson, for defrauding the government.

Crim said he hopes to prove during the course of the trial that Forbes and Elias Mortimer, "intimate friend, accomplice and co-conspirator of Forbes and informant of the government," hoped to divert to themselves $1,000,000 of the $17,000,000 appropriated for erection of the hospitals.

Crim declared the first bribes were made to Forbes by John W. Thompson, St. Louis, one of the members of the contracting firm in Chicago, on June 17, 1922, when Forbes was advanced $5,000 and Mortimer was given a like amount "for which no arrangements had even been made for re-payment."

Crim reviewed the indictment and declared the conspiracy to "sell contracts" was formed while the Langley bill, which provided for erection of the hospitals, was still pending in Congress.

Mortimer is not a defendant in the case but his testimony as a government witness will be used to prove Crim's accusation and the indictment, the assistant attorney general said.

EVANGELIST HOLDS SERVICES IN BRAINERD

Rev. Clarence H. Jensen
at Full Gospel Assembly

Rev. Clarence H. Jensen of Colfax, Wis., who is conducting evangelistic services this week in the Full Gospel Assembly church, across from the fill, has preached and sung in Duluth, Minneapolis, Chicago, Fargo and other cities.

The services here are made exceptionally interesting. The song service starts at 7.30 o'clock and the public is invited to come every night.

THE "Y'S" COLUMN

In this column, which will appear in the Dispatch three times a week, news of the Y. M. C. A. and its activities will be recorded. The Y. M. C. A. work is of such a public nature that the people of our city should be kept informed. If those who have contributed to the work may gain through this column an understanding that their assistance is being used worthily, we shall feel that the work is on the upward path.

Basketball Series

The Young Men's club, recently started, decided at its meeting last Thursday to push a series of basketball games between local teams. The proceeds of these games will be used to purchase new steel box lockers for the Y. M. C. A. That these lockers are needed was evident on Monday when four different groups used the gymnasium and some little confusion arose in dissembling the clothes after the games.

Junior Gym Classes Started

About twenty-five boys make up the Junior gym class which meets on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 4:30 p. m. This class is for boys 11 to 14 years of age and boys of those ages are invited to join. It is planned to have one or more Junior basketball teams. Last Monday a team of class members headed by Frank Wise defeated Gerid Halvorson's team 10 to 5.

Another group of boys using the gym is a class from the Zion Evangelical church under the leadership of Rev. Strothman. This group has a regular gym period assigned.

Hi-Y Club Hears A. E. Hagel

The Hi-Y club heard a very interesting and profitable talk at their last meeting on "The Beauties of Life," by A. E. Hagel, new manager of the Brainerd Model laundry, and scoutmaster of Troop No. 1. Mr. Hagel traced a boy's development thru early life to beyond middle age, when he may expect to reap the benefits of the best in life thru his appreciation of life's beauties. The Hi-Y club is planning an outing on Friday and Saturday of this week, hiking to Hubert lake to the Patterson summer home, where the newer members of the club will be initiated and the club plan its winter activities.

Cross Country Race Thursday

The prizes for the cross country race are on display at the Y. M. C. A. The runners have been training for the five mile grind and are about all set for the starting pistol. The start is scheduled for 9:30 a. m. on Thanksgiving day, with the first runners finishing about half an hour later. The start and finish will both be at the Y. M. C. A. and the public is invited to come and see the race. Arrangements are being made to have telephone reports of the progress of the runners during the race, these reports to be received at the Y. M. C. A. at intervals and announced to the crowd. Remember, tomorrow morning at 9:30.

Youngest Member of the Y.

Ray Cody Conkin believes in starting his Y. M. C. A. membership early. He has just joined the association and bears the distinction of being the youngest member on the books, and, as far as available records show, the youngest member the Brainerd association ever had. During the wet season, which is from April to November, in West Africa, flour must be protected from dampness by waxed paper placed inside the barrels.

Painful Beauty

Women of Tibet, like their western sisters, attain beauty through suffering. The fashionable Tibetan lady rubs her face, hands and neck with melted butter before going to bed, and next morning dusts her face with finely powdered ashes in order to whiten her complexion.

We are thankful today--- for all the good things that have happened to you and to us—and for the bad things that could have happened—but didn't.

We are thankful for the largest volume of business in the history of this store—but we are also thankful that there are some men who didn't trade here in 1924 for that will give us an opportunity for another increase in 1925. We are thankful that we have been able to make Brainerd a better city in which to live by showing Brainerd men better clothes in which to live in.

CON O'BRIEN, 70 YEARS YOUNG

Birthday Party Celebrates Happy
Event in Life of Popular Mayor of the City

SPLENDID DINNER SERVED

Two Tables of Cards Then Played and Some Remarkable Scores Were Turned In

Monday evening Con O'Brien, 70 years young, had a birthday party which was thoroughly enjoyed by all honored in being privileged to attend. The visitors, numbering 25, were greeted by the host and shortly after, dinner was served in two rooms of his spacious home.

And the menu was one in which home cooking vied, and included tender turkey you could cut with your fork, mashed potatoes, peas, sweet potatoes, cranberry sherbert, lettuce and asparagus, pumpkin pie a la mode, coffee and cream, etc. Daughters of Mr. O'Brien served the dinner.

Several of the guests were known to be on diet for reduction, of waist lines or blood pressure, but when that tempting dinner was displayed in a rare setting of cut glass, silver, gleaming white napery, china, cut flowers, etc., all doctors' regulations were cast to the wind and everybody ate freely without mental reservation or other restrictions.

Three times did Col. C. D. Johnson halt the circuit of the turkey plate, equalling Andy Gieriet's record. Barely was one course served, when it fell before the combined attack of the diners. "Come on with your next course," said Con to his daughters. The appetites displayed gave ample evidence that the home cooking of Con O'Brien's household is something of rare merit and many a word of praise and commendation was heard.

After dinner the company played two tables of cards. Head prizes were won by C. D. Johnson and F. A. Farrar on the first table, and by B. C. McNamara and Giles O'Brien on the second table. Booby prizes were awarded John Holvick and Captain William H. Fawcett. The host of the evening fared just a little better than the consolation prize winners. Between hands cider and apples were served.

The guests present were R. J. Hartley, A. G. Trommald, John Holvick, F. A. Farrar, H. L. Jones, James Murphy, Captain Wm. H. Fawcett, E. R. Smith, A. A. Gieriet, Art Koop, Ernest Butler, B. C. McNamara, Bert Parker, Geo. Warner, John A. Hoffbauer, C. D. Johnson, Max Markowitz, George Trent, Jr., and the five sons of Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, being Jay, Bert, Giles, Neil and Earl.

FORBES CASE OPENS, BRIBERY CHARGES MADE

GOVERNMENT OPENS WITH AT-TORNEY GENERAL CRIM'S
STATEMENT

SAYS FORBES AND ACCOMPLICE
HOPED TO DIVERT MILLION TO THEMSELVES

Chicago, Nov. 26.—The contracting firm of Thompson & Black "bought and paid for its government contracts" for erection of veterans hospitals, Assistant Attorney General John W. H. Crim charged today in his opening statement to the federal jury trying Col. Charles R. Forbes, former Veterans Bureau director, and John W. Thompson, for defrauding the government.

Crim said he hopes to prove during the course of the trial that Forbes and Elias Mortimer, "intimate friend, accomplice and co-conspirator of Forbes and informant of the government," hoped to divert to themselves $1,000,000 of the $17,000,000 appropriated for erection of the hospitals.

Crim declared the first bribes were made to Forbes by John W. Thompson, St. Louis, one of the members of the contracting firm in Chicago, on June 17, 1922, when Forbes was advanced $5,000 and Mortimer was given a like amount "for which no arrangements had even been made for re-payment."

Crim reviewed the indictment and declared the conspiracy to "sell contracts" was formed while the Langley bill, which provided for erection of the hospitals, was still pending in Congress.

Mortimer is not a defendant in the case but his testimony as a government witness will be used to prove Crim's accusation and the indictment, the assistant attorney general said.

EVANGELIST HOLDS SERVICES IN BRAINERD

Rev. Clarence H. Jensen
at Full Gospel Assembly

Rev. Clarence H. Jensen of Colfax, Wis., who is conducting evangelistic services this week in the Full Gospel Assembly church, across from the fill, has preached and sung in Duluth, Minneapolis, Chicago, Fargo and other cities.

The services here are made exceptionally interesting. The song service starts at 7.30 o'clock and the public is invited to come every night.

THE "Y'S" COLUMN

In this column, which will appear in the Dispatch three times a week, news of the Y. M. C. A. and its activities will be recorded. The Y. M. C. A. work is of such a public nature that the people of our city should be kept informed. If those who have contributed to the work may gain through this column an understanding that their assistance is being used worthily, we shall feel that the work is on the upward path.

Basketball Series

The Young Men's club, recently started, decided at its meeting last Thursday to push a series of basketball games between local teams. The proceeds of these games will be used to purchase new steel box lockers for the Y. M. C. A. That these lockers are needed was evident on Monday when four different groups used the gymnasium and some little confusion arose in dissembling the clothes after the games.

Junior Gym Classes Started

About twenty-five boys make up the Junior gym class which meets on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 4:30 p. m. This class is for boys 11 to 14 years of age and boys of those ages are invited to join. It is planned to have one or more Junior basketball teams. Last Monday a team of class members headed by Frank Wise defeated Gerld Halvorson's team 10 to 5.

Another group of boys using the gym is a class from the Zion Evangelical church under the leadership of Rev. Strothman. This group has a regular gym period assigned.

Hi-Y Club Hears A. E. Hagel

The Hi-Y club heard a very interesting and profitable talk at their last meeting on "The Beauties of Life," by A. E. Hagel, new manager of the Brainerd Model laundry, and scoutmaster of Troop No. 1. Mr. Hagel traced a boy's development thru early life to beyond middle age, when he may expect to reap the benefits of the best in life thru his appreciation of life's beauties. The Hi-Y club is planning an outing on Friday and Saturday of this week, hiking to Hubert lake to the Patterson summer home, where the newer members of the club will be initiated and the club plan its winter activities.

Cross Country Race Thursday

The prizes for the cross country race are on display at the Y. M. C. A. The runners have been training for the five mile grind and are about all set for the starting pistol. The start is scheduled for 9:30 a. m. on Thanksgiving day, with the first runners finishing about half an hour later. The start and finish will both be at the Y. M. C. A. and the public is invited to come and see the race. Arrangements are being made to have telephone reports of the progress of the runners during the race, these reports to be received at the Y. M. C. A. at intervals and announced to the crowd. Remember, tomorrow morning at 9:30.

Youngest Member of the Y.

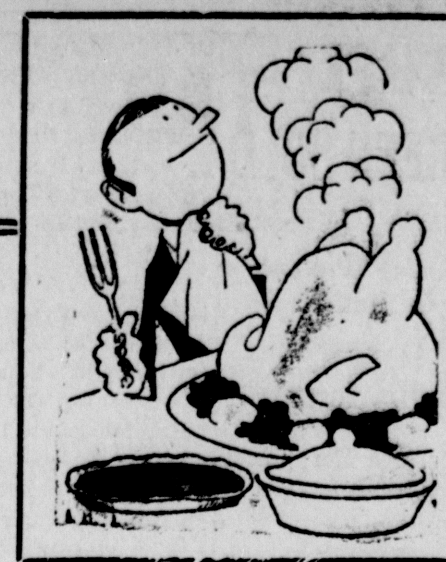

Ray Cody Conkin believes in starting his Y. M. C. A. membership early. City Council Supplies Vaccine Free, Doctors of City Give Free Services

General Vaccination to Start the Latter Part of Present Week it is Announced

The city of Brainerd will give free voluntary vaccination as a preventative for small pox, this service to begin probably the latter part of the present week.

This action was taken at the special meeting of the city council held on Tuesday evening. The meeting was called by order of the president of the council for the purpose of making necessary provisions for the payment of permanent improvement fund bonds, known as repaving certificate, which mature on Dec. 1st, to consider such action as the council might deem advisable relative to a tax levy and to take up the matter of voluntary vaccination against smallpox.

Dr. Joseph Nicholson, health officer of the city, addressed the council in regard to the epidemic of black smallpox throughout the state and read a letter from the state board of health in which recommendations were made for preventative action.

Dr. Nicholson stated that while no cases of smallpox have been reported in Brainerd, still many transients and local people traveling about the state are in danger of contracting the disease, or at least carrying it to residents of Brainerd. Cases were cited of whole families being stricken, in the cities and it was observed that a victim of the disease rarely survives more than 36 hours after being stricken. Those who have been vaccinated successfully in the past year or so, do not have the disease in as virulent a form and have every chance for a complete recovery.

A resolution was presented from the local board of health stating that the health conditions existing in the city have been considered and that it is felt that preventative measures should be adopted in the interests of all concerned to prevent an epidemic of smallpox in this community.

Miss Eula Michael, city and school nurse, told of the action that is being taken by the Brainerd board of education in providing free voluntary vaccination to pupils in the public schools. Many children have taken full advantage of this offer.

Alderman C. H. Paine offered a motion, seconded by Alderman Rittari, that the city council authorize the purchase of vaccine for those wishing voluntary vaccination which motion carried.

It is planned to use one of the rooms in the city hall, probably the nurse's office, for giving this free voluntary vaccination. Unless otherwise arranged, women will be vaccinated during the hours from ten o'clock until noon on the days to be decided upon later, and men during the hours from four to six o'clock in the afternoon. The city will furnish the vaccine and the local physicians are giving of their time without charge.

The chairman explained the call of the special council meeting, in regard to finances, and showed that a bond of $6,250 repaying certificates will become due December 1st and that payment of these bonds had not been provided. Alderman Holmstrom offered a resolution supported by Alderman Cain, authorizing the sinking fund commissioners to purchase the bonds and hold them until such time as the city can take them up. This resolution was adopted.

This method of disposing of the bonds made it unnecessary to take up the matter of the tax levy and the council adjourned. All members were present upon roll call.

DISTRICT COURT PROCEEDINGS

Adjourned at 2 P. M. Wednesday Until Tuesday Morning, Dec. 2, at 10 O'clock

GUSTAFSON CASE DISMISSED

Judge Stanton Decides That State Failed to Show Defendant Was Implicated in Charge

District court was adjourned at 2 o'clock this afternoon by Judge C. W. Stanton until Tuesday morning, Dec. 2nd, at 10 o'clock. At that time Judge W. S. McClenahan will no doubt make further orders setting the adjourned term and the call of the petit jury for the first week in January.

On Tuesday afternoon the case of the state against Robert Gustafson, charged with a statutory offense, was dismissed by the court, at the close of the state's side of the case, because of failure to show by the evidence presented that the defendant was the man implicated in the alleged crime. The state failed to prove the identity of the defendant as to being the man who assaulted the complaining witness.

Friends of Mr. Gustafson, who have contended throughout the entire trial that he was innocent of the charge, are highly elated at the dismissal of the case. Mr. Gustafson is a married man with a family of two small children and feel that the damage done to his character in this case is irreparable.

Joe Bobenac, charged with the sale of liquor, was sentenced to pay a fine of $300 and 90 days in jail, with an additional 90 days if the fine is not paid.

John Cox withdrew his plea of not guilty to a charge of selling liquor and entered a plea of guilty. His case was continued until the May term of the district court and in the meantime the defendant is to report to the county attorney on the first day of each month.

George Bauer was arraigned on a charge of manufacturing liquor. He plead guilty and was fined $150 and

Existing Conditions

It is estimated there are 1,000,000 diabetics in the nation, and the condition is steadily increasing. Of the 22,000,000 school children in the nation, 16,500,000 are suffering from physical defects! Nearly half the nation is subnormal according to Secretary Weeks, resulting in an economic loss in excess of $1,500,000,000 annually! The annual drug bill for the nation exceeds $500,000,000! Constipation is so universal that it may be looked upon as the normal condition of civilized man! Defective teeth are so universal that that condition too may be looked upon as the normal condition of civilized man! What is responsible for these conditions affecting practically every civilized being? Surely and only a universal cause. The denatured food of civilization is at the root of it all. What shall we do to be saved? Obey the natural law—obey or perish.

Time~ its importance in the proper washing of clothes

ALTHOUGH the copper tank of The "EASY" Vacuum Electric Washer measures only 24" in diameter and occupies a very small amount of floor space, this popular machine will properly wash a load of 10 lbs. of dry clothes. With this large tank capacity, it is practicable to take sufficient time to wash each individual load gently yet thoroughly clean. The total length of time to dispose of a large washing is, however, but the fractional part of an hour.

The EASY Vacuum Electric WASHER

Large capacity means few loads, hence little handling of clothes.

Large capacity means slow motion of moving parts, hence no tearing of the clothes or wear on the washer.

Even with this large clothes capacity the "EASY" uses only 14 gallons of water with a correspondingly economical use of soap—the most expensive item in the washing of clothes.

The "EASY" will do a small washing just as efficiently as a large one. Its capacity is adjustable to the amount of clothes to be washed.

It is a matter of real science, of years of experiment and experience to design a washer which will thoroughly clean the greatest number of clothes in the least volume of water, absolutely without wear or tear on the finest of fabrics, without excessive handling, and in the shortest possible time.

The three large nickel-plated AIR PRESSURE and SUCTION CUPS of the "EASY," with their gentle agitation, wash clothes exactly in accordance with the above ideal conditions.

It will be worth your time to ask us to demonstrate these FACTS to you.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS

Continue to Draw Large Audiences at Swedish Bethany Church

Large audiences continue to be the rule at the evangelistic meetings being conducted in the Swedish Bethany church. The meetings for the balance of the week will be in the American language.

Tonight Evangelist Abrik Olson will deliver an interesting and uplifting message. W. O. Larson will continue to have charge of the singing. The singing starts at 7:30.

Tomorrow the members and friends of the church will have Thanksgiving dinner in the parsonage basement at 2 o'clock.

Evening service at 7:30 tomorrow and Friday. A hearty welcome awaits all.

DISTRICT COURT PROCEEDINGS

Adjourned at 2 P. M. Wednesday Until Tuesday Morning, Dec. 2, at 10 O'clock

GUSTAFSON CASE DISMISSED

Judge Stanton Decides That State Failed to Show Defendant Was Implicated in Charge

District court was adjourned at 2 o'clock this afternoon by Judge C. W. Stanton until Tuesday morning, Dec. 2nd, at 10 o'clock. At that time Judge W. S. McClenahan will no doubt make further orders setting the adjourned term and the call of the petit jury for the first week in January.

On Tuesday afternoon the case of the state against Robert Gustafson, charged with a statutory offense, was dismissed by the court, at the close of the state's side of the case, because of failure to show by the evidence presented that the defendant was the man implicated in the alleged crime. The state failed to prove the identity of the defendant as to being the man who assaulted the complaining witness.

Friends of Mr. Gustafson, who have contended throughout the entire trial that he was innocent of the charge, are highly elated at the dismissal of the case. Mr. Gustafson is a married man with a family of two small children and feel that the damage done to his character in this case is irreparable.

Joe Bobenac, charged with the sale of liquor, was sentenced to pay a fine of $300 and 90 days in jail, with an additional 90 days if the fine is not paid.

John Cox withdrew his plea of not guilty to a charge of selling liquor and entered a plea of guilty. His case was continued until the May term of the district court and in the meantime the defendant is to report to the county attorney on the first day of each month.

George Bauer was arraigned on a charge of manufacturing liquor. He plead guilty and was fined $150 and 30 days in jail, the jail sentence being suspended until May 1st upon good behavior.

RETURN FROM HONEYMOON

Mr. and Mrs. David Goodnature Visited in Twin Cities and Southern Part of State

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Goodnature have returned from their honeymoon spent in the twin cities and in the southern part of the state.

The couple surprised their many friends in Brainerd by quietly being married on Nov. 18th at the parsonage of St. Francis Catholic church.

Mr. Goodnature is employed at the local postoffice. His bride, before her marriage, was Miss Kathryn M. O'Leary, is well known in Brainerd. Her parents are from Iowa and have a summer home on Lake Bertha.

The newlyweds have gone to housekeeping on Bluff avenue north. Their many friends join in offering congratulations and best wishes.

Thanksgiving Day

As has been the custom for many years our store will close with other Brainerd stores all day tomorrow for the proper observance of Thanksgiving day.

And Then Christmas

There will be just 23 shopping days after Thanksgiving until Christmas. Our purpose is to have everything in our store ready for you to assist you in your shopping. And, we will have the practical gifts which women like to present to one another.

Existing Conditions

It is estimated there are 1,000,000 diabetics in the nation, and the condition is steadily increasing. Of the 22,000,000 school children in the nation, 16,500,000 are suffering from physical defects! Nearly half the nation is subnormal according to Secretary Weeks, resulting in an economic loss in excess of $1,500,000,000 annually! The annual drug bill for the nation exceeds $500,000,000! Constipation is so universal that it may be looked upon as the normal condition of civilized man! Defective teeth are so universal that that condition too may be looked upon as the normal condition of civilized man! What is responsible for these conditions affecting practically every civilized being? Surely and only a universal cause. The denatured food of civilization is at the root of it all. What shall we do to be saved? Obey the natural law—obey or perish.

Time—its importance in the proper washing of clothes

ALTHOUGH the copper tank of The "EASY" Vacuum Electric Washer measures only 24" in diameter and occupies a very small amount of floor space, this popular machine will properly wash a load of 10 lbs. of dry clothes. With this large tank capacity, it is practicable to take sufficient time to wash each individual load gently yet thoroughly clean. The total length of time to dispose of a large washing is, however, but the fractional part of an hour.

"These are my washday hands"

The EASY Vacuum Electric WASHER

Large capacity means few loads, hence little handling of clothes.

Large capacity means slow motion of moving parts, hence no tearing of the clothes or wear on the washer.

Even with this large clothes capacity the "EASY" uses only 14 gallons of water with a correspondingly economical use of soap—the most expensive item in the washing of clothes.

The "EASY" will do a small washing just as efficiently as a large one. Its capacity is adjustable to the amount of clothes to be washed.

It is a matter of real science, of years of experiment and experience to design a washer which will thoroughly clean the greatest number of clothes in the least volume of water, absolutely without wear or tear on the finest of fabrics, without excessive handling, and in the shortest possible time.

The three large nickel-plated AIR PRESSURE and SUCTION CUPS of the "EASY," with their gentle agitation, wash clothes exactly in accordance with the above ideal conditions.

It will be worth your time to ask us to demonstrate these FACTS to you.

THE DYING FOOTBALL SEASON OF '24

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 26.—Most of the big football teams packed away their togs and broke training after last week's games, but a number of them will swing into action and finish their year's work tomorrow or Saturday.

Thanksgiving Day used to be the official closing of the football season and the holiday games were the features of the year, but in the last few years most of the big colleges have gotten away from the idea and only a few of them schedule games for that day. What games remain on the schedule are most established traditional games that have been played for years and years.

Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Dartmouth are through for the season, but most of the other big teams in the East have one or two games remaining. The Western Conference, Pacific Coast Conference and most of the Southern teams are also out of action for the year, but a few games remain in the Missouri Valley Conference and in the South.

Three established classics engaging teams that have opposed each other on Thanksgiving Day for years will brighten up the Eastern schedule.

Cornell and Pennsylvania play their annual game at Philadelphia. Pittsburgh and Penn State play at Pittsburgh and West Virginia and Washington and Jefferson meet at Morgantown.

Columbia and Syracuse play in New York in a game that is an addition to the schedule. It is the last game that Syracuse will play in the East before leaving for California. Pennsylvania also plays its farewell before traveling to Berkeley, to play the University of California on New Year's Day.

Brown and Colgate have an interesting game at Providence, but few other important games are on the Eastern schedule.

With Notre Dame taking a rest and the Western Conference teams through for the season, the smaller conferences will offer the interesting games in the Middle-west.

Cincinnati and Miami play at Cincinnati. Loyola and St. Viator's play at Chicago. Marquette plays an intersectional game against Vermont at Milwaukee. Western Reserve has another intersectional game against Tufts at Cleveland.

AMUSEMENTS

Blames Many Deaths on Illegal Hooch

"Three thousand deaths in one eastern city alone last year were due to bootleg liquor," declares Lambert Hillyer, who directed "Those Who Dance," the Thomas H. Ince drama, just released by First National, which tells the story of liquor.

According to Hillyer, statistics shows that approximately 65 per cent of the deaths today from hardening of the arteries, hardening of the liver and Bright's disease are the result of continued drinking of illegal hooch. Without attempting to present the moral phase of the question, Ince has evolved a stirring drama by telling the story of the fight against a group of bootleggers started by a young lawyer whose sister is a victim of wood-alcoholism. At the New Park last time tonight.

All-Star Cast for Zane Grey's "Border Legion"

Headed by Antonio Moreno and Helen Chadwick in featured roles, a remarkably strong cast has been assembled in the newest Zane Grey.

Paramount production, "The Border Legion," to be shown at the New Park on Thursday and Friday.

Moreno has a different sort of role as Jim Cleve, a gay, young, irresponsible cowboy. Miss Chadwick's role is that of a typical daughter of the west—young, beautiful, unafraid.

In the principal supporting roles are Rockliffe Fellowes, leader of "The Border Legion," Gibson Gowland, his lieutenant; Charles Ogle, a cattleman who is the target for the maraudings of the Legion; James Corey, Edward Gribbon and Luke Cosgrave.

Vaudeville at the New Park on Saturday and Sunday—Regular Prices.

The Gibbons Sisters will present a number of jazz, eccentric and solo dances in special costumes at the New Park on Saturday and Sunday in conjunction with the "special" picture "Desire," starring Marguerite De La Motte, John Bowers and Estelle Taylor, all for regular prices.

Shirley Mason at Lyceum in "Love Letters"

When a girl is engaged to be married and some other man holds love letters written in her fair hand, something must be done. Something drastic and swift, if the merry marriage bells are to peal. Otherwise the bride might have to doff her veil and discard the orange blossoms.

Which is a slightly different way of telling the theme of Shirley Mason's latest picture, "Love Letters," a William Fox production to be shown at the Lyceum theatre for two days, starting Thursday.

A Tale of the Inside Life of Hollywood

Hollywood has been held up to the light as a modern Sodom and Gomorrah, but it has taken Elinor Glyn, the gifted English authoress to show the inside life of the famous motion picture colony in writing "All the World's a Stage," now showing at the Lyceum theatre. "There is no vice in this snug little

Y AND HIGH SCHOOL IN 5 MILE RACE

THANKSGIVING SPECIAL WILL BE RUN IN THE MORNING

PRIZES ARE NOW ON DISPLAY AT THE Y. M. C. A. BUILDING

When 9:30 o'clock rolls around tomorrow morning, ten long distance runners will line up outside the Y. M. C. A. doors, and start the grueling race over the five mile course, the last race of a series of races to be run between the high school and the Y. M. C. A. The course leads south to the Fredstrom corner, then east to Gruenhagen's, then along Thirteenth Street to Oak, along Oak to Sixth, then back to the Y. M. C. A. The start will be at 9:30 A. M., with the first runners crossing the line about half an hour later. The course has been measured and found to be 4.9 miles, near enough to five miles to afford a basis of comparison with the University cross country records.

This is the last of a series of races, starting three weeks ago with a half mile race. The Y. M. C. A. issued a challenge to the high school, which was accepted, and each side is represented each week by a team of five runners. In the first race, half mile, on Nov. 5, the Y. M. C. A. nosed out a victory, 29-26. A week later the one mile race was held, with the Y. M. C. A. again coming out ahead. The score in that race was 60-50. Last week the high school found the pace of the Y runners too strenuous, in a two mile race, and the Y. M. C. A. took the first four places.

Tomorrow morning the high school has its last chance to beat the Y, and several new runners may be seen in the line-up, with the hope that they may break the string of Y. M. C. A. victories. Among those who are sure to start are Lester Peterson, who has won each of the three other races, Alfred Dillan, runner-up in each of the three races, Harry Drake, high point winner for the high school, with 36 points, Stewart Gile, nosed out of first high school place city of studios and bungalows. True, there are those who, basking in the radiance of popularity are unable to stand prosperity, but on the other hand for every trespasser of the law there are hundreds of screen players who are honorable and law abiding citizens—people who give several communities where a studio is unheard of, lessons in correct deportment.

last week by Drake, Howard Thoroldson, who has made 31 points in two races, and Gerhart Flaata, the surprise of last week, when after trailing in one of the last positions in the first two races, broke away from the field for third place in the two mile run. Rumor has it that Jerry Schröder plans to run as a dark entry.

Prizes for the contest are on display at the Y. M. C. A. These prizes all donated by the merchants of Brainerd, are as follows:

First prize—choice of basketball shoes. One pair of Top-Notch Grip Sures, donated by John Carlson & Son, and one pair of Converse All-Stars, donated by John Bye Clothing Co. The other pair of shoes will be awarded to the first runner to finish of the team not represented by the winner of first place.

Second prize—Yale flashlight donated by Perry Hardware Co. Third prize—Plumb Boy Scout axe, donated by Alderman-Maghan Co. In addition to the four prizes listed above, the other runners who finish the race, will be awarded boxes of candy. Merchants giving boxes of candy for this purpose are DeSmidt Candy Co., Olympia Candy Kitchen, Brainerd Candy Kitchen, Economy Drug Co. and Louis Hohman.

GRANGE LEADER OF THE ILLINI

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 26.—Red Grange, most brilliant halfback in the country, was elected captain of the University of Illinois football team for the 1925 season. Eighteen members of the squad were awarded their letters for the season just closed.

BIG LEAGUE CATCHER SHOTS AND KILLS MAN

(By United Press) Xenia, O., Nov. 26.—C. W. "Tack" Lattimer, former big league baseball catcher, surrendered to police here today after shooting to death Charles Mackred, 40, in an argument. Lattimer formerly played with the Brooklyn Dodgers and Pittsburgh Pirates.

Killed Deer With Buckshot

(By United Press) Saranac Lake, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Kenneth H. Holcombe of Rouses Point is one of the few men in the north country to kill a deer with bird shot. On a recent morning he went duck hunting. He bagged one bird and started home for breakfast. In a pasture with some horses he was amazed to see a fine buck. He crept within range and gave the deer both barrels. The buck ran for half a mile and then crashed.

YANKEE SCOUT MAY PURCHASE SAINTS; VISITS J. W. NORTON

BOB CONNERY, OF NEW YORK, LOOKS THE SITUATION OVER

THEN RETURNS EAST FOR A CONFERENCE WITH HIS BACKERS

St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Bob Connery, scout for the New York American league baseball club, formerly scout for the St. Louis Cardinals, is interested in purchasing the St. Paul baseball club.

Connery was here for several days looking the situation over and has now returned to New York to confer with the men who would aid in financing the purchase.

John W. Norton, owner, believes that the group of St. Paul men who nearly closed the purchase a few days ago will take over the club very soon.

This group has agreed upon the terms, but has some matters of financing the deal to be arranged among themselves.

Mr. Norton will leave Friday for the baseball meetings to be held next week at New York and Providence, R. I. He does not expect that the sale will be made before he leaves, but it may be settled while he is at the meeting.—St. Paul Daily News.

MARKS TO PILOT INDIANA TEAM

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 26.—Larry Marks, Wabash, Ind., was elected pilot of the University of Indiana football team for next year. Eleven varsity men were awarded their letters.

HENDERSON TO CAPTAIN CHICAGO

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Fred Henderson of Butte, Mont., will captain the big ten champions—the University of Chicago eleven—through the next season. Henderson weighs over 200 pounds and plays tackle.

Y AND HIGH SCHOOL IN 5 MILE RACE

THANKSGIVING SPECIAL WILL BE RUN IN THE MORNING

PRIZES ARE NOW ON DISPLAY AT THE Y. M. C. A. BUILDING

When 9:30 o'clock rolls around tomorrow morning, ten long distance runners will line up outside the Y. M. C. Last week the high school found the pace of the Y runners too strenuous, in a two mile race, and the Y. M. C. A. took the first four places.

Tomorrow morning the high school has its last chance to beat the Y, and several new runners may be seen in the line-up, with the hope that they may break the string of Y. M. C. A. victories. Among those who are sure to start are Lester Peterson, who has won each of the three other races, Alfred Dillan, runner-up in each of the three races, Harry Drake, high point winner for the high school, with 36 points, Stewart Gile, nosed out of first high school place city of studios and bungalows. True, there are those who, basking in the radiance of popularity are unable to stand prosperity, but on the other hand for every trespasser of the law there are hundreds of screen players who are honorable and law abiding citizens—people who give several communities where a studio is unheard of, lessons in correct deportment."

last week by Drake, Howard Thoroldson, who has made 31 points in two races, and Gerhart Flaata, the surprise of last week, when after trailing in one of the last positions in the first two races, broke away from the field for third place in the two mile run. Rumor has it that Jerry Schrader plans to run as a dark entry.

Prizes for the contest are on display at the Y. M. C. A. These prizes all donated by the merchants of Brainerd, are as follows:

First prize—choice of basketball shoes. One pair of Top-Notch Grip Sures, donated by John Carlson & Son, and one pair of Converse All-Stars, donated by John Bye Clothing Co. The other pair of shoes will be awarded to the first runner to finish of the team not represented by the winner of first place.

Second prize—Yale flashlight donated by Perry Hardware Co.

Third prize—Plumb Boy Scout axe, donated by Alderman-Maghan Co. In addition to the four prizes listed above, the other runners who finish the race, will be awarded boxes of candy. Merchants giving boxes of candy for this purpose are DeSmidt Candy Co., Olympia Candy Kitchen, Brainerd Candy Kitchen, Economy Drug Co. and Louis Hohman.

GRANGE LEADER OF THE ILLINI

BIG LEAGUE CATCHER SHOTS AND KILLS MAN

(By United Press)
Xenia, O., Nov. 26.—C. W. "Tack" Lattimer, former big league baseball catcher, surrendered to police here today after shooting to death Charles Mackredt, 40, in an argument. Lattimer formerly played with the Brooklyn Dodgers and Pittsburgh Pirates.

Killed Deer With Buckshot

(By United Press)
Saranac Lake, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Kenneth H. Holcombe of Rouses Point is one of the few men in the north country to kill a deer with bird shot. On a recent morning he went duck hunting. He bagged one bird and started home for breakfast. In a pasture with some horses he was amazed to see a fine buck. He crept within range and gave the deer both barrels. The buck ran for half a mile and then crashed.

YANKEE SCOUT MAY PURCHASE SAINTS; VISITS J. W. NORTON

BOB CONNERY, OF NEW YORK, LOOKS THE SITUATION OVER

THEN RETURNS EAST FOR A CONFERENCE WITH HIS BACKERS

St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Bob Connery, scout for the New York American league baseball club, formerly scout for the St. Louis Cardinals, is interested in purchasing the St. Paul baseball club.

Connery was here for several days looking the situation over and has now returned to New York to confer with the men who would aid in financing the purchase.

John W. Norton, owner, believes that the group of St. Paul men who nearly closed the purchase a few days ago will take over the club very soon.

This group has agreed upon the terms, but has some matters of financing the deal to be arranged among themselves.

Mr. Norton will leave Friday for the baseball meetings to be held next week at New York and Providence, R. I. He does not expect that the sale will be made before he leaves, but it may be settled while he is at the meeting.—St. Paul Daily News.

MARKS TO PILOT INDIANA TEAM

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 26.—Larry Marks, Wabash, Ind., was elected pilot of the University of Indiana football team for next year. Eleven varsity men were awarded their letters.
